

Is it Wednesday?

Yes, it is.

Are the teachers / students here?

Yes, they are.

Is it three o'clock / time to begin?

Yes, it is.

What is the date? It's

When is the last English class? It's on.....

When is Közhely Christmas? It's on.....

When is Mikolás Day? It's on....

How many people are here? There are....

That's life! Friday after work.

Lucy – Good-bye, Mary! Have a good weekend!

Mary – Bye, Lucy! Are you ready for Mikulás?

L – No, I'm not. I'm going shopping now.

M – What are you doing tomorrow?

L – *I'm visiting my parents. How about you?

M – I'm calling my cousin, Anne. She lives in America.

L – I heard that they don't celebrate Mikulás Day in America. Is that true?

M – Yes, it is. Children don't get gifts and sweets on December 6.

L – Really? Why?

M – Santa Claus brings gifts to the children on Christmas Eve.

"Santa Claus" is another name for Mikulás.

L – That's interesting!

M – Have a good time tomorrow! Here's a peppermint for Mikulás Day.

L – Thank you!

M – You're welcome. Hey, wait a minute! Did you see that?

L – What was it?

M – I think it's.....it's.....it's.....

L & M – Mikulás!

Saying thank you for a gift

- Thank you very much! I really like it!

- You're welcome. Do you really like it?

- Yes, I like it a lot! Thank you very much!

- I'm glad you like it.

How about you? – És te?

I heard that – Azt hallottam, hogy celebrate – ünnepel

true – igaz

gift / present – ajándék

Christmas Eve – dec. 24-e

peppermint – menta-cukorka

Hey, wait a minute! – figyelj csak

Thank you very much!

Nagyon szépen köszönöm!

I really like it.

I like it a lot.

I like it very much.

Nagyon tetszik nekem.

Nagyon szeretem.

I really like it very much!

Nagyon, nagyon.....!

"What's the greatest gift I can give to another person?.....We can give away many things to other people, but ultimately what is most valuable is the way we are with others. This is the gift that sticks to the heart.....It's amazing how much good we can do, not only for ourselves but also for the world, by learning to be a bit more lighthearted."
